Teaching Faculty

Angela Tesoriero is a leading vocal coach and drama teacher. She gained her LTCL Trinity Teaching Diploma in Speech and Drama in 1993 and is a member of The Speech and Drama Association of NSW. Angela has studied at the Voice & Speech Centre, London; NIDA and the Australian Film & Television School.

Angela's professional experience in the Drama industry lies predominantly in many years of directing, active involvement in theatre groups and working with leading voice coaches both in Australia and overseas. Currently, Angela is a member and performer with Darlinghurst Theatre. As Director of the training organisation, Fix Australia, Angela is committed to delivering high quality programs in schools (including Tangara and The Kings School), workplaces and the community.

Paul Taylor has a strong background in a variety of fields within the communication and natural therapies industries. Paul holds a Bachelor of Communications degree. He is also a qualified massage therapist and fitness trainer, enabling him to bring a wealth of practical technical expertise concerning the role of anatomy, posture, movement, breathing and body mechanics to benefit the practice of Drama & Speech.

As a teacher of Drama, Speech, Effective Communication and Vocal Improvement programs he conducts both personal (one on one) and group training sessions for a variety of private and corporate clientele throughout Sydney, working in private studio, school, and workplace environments. Paul has over five years experience in conducting classes to a wide range of participants. Paul has appeared in several short films and is involved in writing and directing for theatre productions.

In addition, Paul has ten years of corporate experience in the areas of Speech Writing, Marketing, PR & Event Management. He has worked on the creation, implementation, staging and management of major community fundraising and entertainment events for clients including the Sony Foundation Australia, ADAPE, Macquarie Bank and Club Marconi. He is a regular guest speaker, at networking and careers events, on the importance of developing effective communication and presentation skills.

Other teachers: We also draw on other specialised teachers to supplement the Workshops as required.
